

Do you want to know more about how your child communicates online?

As part of our work with the charity Tender, we are providing a face to face workshop for parents and carers to discuss their worries around online relationships

Come along to
St. William's Primary School
on

Thursday 14th November 6pm - 7pm

to get support, advice and chat with other parents too.

There will be hot drinks and biscuits!

